A German tailor in a village in Canada failed a few days ago and called a meeting of his creditors. An investigation seemed to show that his liabilities were $1,000 and his assets $1,000.

"This appears," said one of his creditors, "that you can pay twenty-five cents on the dollar."

"Yes, I don't figure like that," replied the tailor.

"How do you figure?"

"Very, I pays fifty cents on der dollar."

"How can you do that when your assets only allow for one-fourth?"

"Well, I brings dat odder money down from der house!"

RAILROAD ACCIDENT.

A Passenger Train Goes Down Through a Bridge With Fatal Results.

One Man Instantly Killed and Several Severely Injured—Narrow Escape of the Engineer and Fireman.

The Same Conductor and Engineer Went Through the Same Bridge Two Years Ago.

SWITZ CITY, ILL., July 29.—The narrow gauge train from Bedford to Switz City met with an accident at five o'clock last evening while crossing White River, four miles east of this place. The west span of the bridge broke in the center, letting the entire train fall a distance of thirty-five feet to the water, which is four to ten feet deep.

THREE KILLED AND WOUNDED. Wm. Hibberts, a passenger, was killed instantly. Dr. W. H. Cole and James East, of the engine crew, were severely injured. Chas. Anderson of Indianapolis, was severely, but not dangerously hurt, and Wm. Mitchell, of Bradford, conductor of the train, was seriously injured.

John Roberts and Ben Haywood, brakemen, were slightly bruised and cut.

The engineer and fireman were the only ones injured, and both escaped by jumping from the train.

FENCING PUBLIC LANDS.

A Father and Son Shot Dead for Cutting a Fence on Their Own Farm.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 29.—Among the complaints at the General Land Office of unlawful enclosures of public land is a recent letter from a citizen of Kansas, stating that the Comanche Pool Coal Company has fenced in upwards of 100,000 acres in Barber and Clark Counties. Referring to representations that settlers are not prevented from going into the enclosures to take up land, the writer says that while it is true that settlers may go in and take the land, it is also true that they do not own it. He further states that two settlers, Thomas Webb and his son, were recently shot and killed by cowboys for cutting the fence of this company, where it crossed their own land, to save going around some ten miles to get through the company's gate.

A Clean Bill of Character. WASHINGTON, D. C., July 29.—Thomas P. Cheney, Superintendent of the First Division of the Railroad Mail Service, with headquarters at Boston, Mass., has resigned to accept a pension agency at Concord, N. H. This division comprises New Hampshire, Vermont, and Connecticut, and is a very competent and efficient superintendent, and the department regrets to lose so valuable an officer. He has been Superintendent of that division for fifteen years and has it given for reliable that he is connected with a number of railroads, and is an important and efficient branch of the public service. He is the oldest superintendent with one exception. He has rendered excellent service, and will be missed under any Postmaster-General, and of whom appreciated Mr. Cheney's worth as a public officer and a gentleman. He will be succeeded by Mr. Winslow of Maine.

Captain Schley's Preliminary Report. WASHINGTON, D. C., July 29.—A brief preliminary report from Captain Schley has come by mail to Admiral Nichols, acting Secretary of the Navy. The report is dated "St. John's, July 21," and merely states that in prosecuting the search for the Guey party, it was often found necessary to make greater risks in pursuing them than apparently justifiable, as they were not known to be guilty, or, if so, imperfectly satisfied, and that it changes unchanged. The course to a great extent was covered with ice, and although great prudence was constantly exercised, both the Thetis and Head ground were broken, but without causing serious injury. Captain Schley's purpose is avoided referring to these mishaps in his first telegraphic report for fear of causing unseemliness, but in his final report he will furnish minute statement covering the circumstances attending his initial.

How did you like the Democratic meeting of Saturday night?" said a bright young man this morning. "Every man, by the way, of whose political preferences we were entirely ignorant. After hearing an unfavorable opinion as to the character of the speeches got off at that meeting the young man said: "Well, that is the party my father belongs to, but I can't see what there is about it to attract me, or any other young man." And we agreed with him fully.

OUTWARD applications of so-called remedies must prove worthless with disease of the blood, and it is now universally admitted that neuralgia and rheumatism are diseases of this character. Athleophore strikes at the root of rheumatism and neuralgic troubles, by correcting an unhealthy condition of the blood. Rev. Dr. E. Harris, pastor of St. John's Church, M. E. Church, New Haven, Conn., testifies to the valuable quality of this medicine. He was cured of a severe case of acute rheumatism by one bottle of the new and powerful specific.

HE TOOK LAUDANUM.

Suicide of Francis O. Sanborn Last Night—The Inquest.

Francis O. Sanborn, in his 21st year, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Sanborn, committed suicide last night at his home, 401 East Herkimer street, by taking an overdose of laudanum. He was a stout, industrious young man, and was lately a moulder at J. M. Flood's foundry, in the fifth ward.

THE PARTICULARS.

Coroner Bendure held an inquest at the house to-day, when the following particulars were obtained:

Francis Sanborn testified: I am the father of Francis O. Sanborn, who was born 20 weeks ago. He will be 21 on the 1st of August next. For some time past Francis has been dependent. About two weeks ago he said to me, "I am going to commit suicide." When I asked him what he meant he gave no satisfactory explanation. He had been sitting and talking to me for a long time, and when I received his money on Sunday and gave it to his mother with the remark: "This is the last," he made the remark: "This is the last." Last evening he told his little six-year-old son that he was going to die. His mother said, "Don't talk about dying." His mother went upstairs this morning before he was up and soon after called to me saying he was trying to commit suicide. I came up and found him unconscious, thinking he had fainted. I called Dr. Oberholzer, who arrived when he was dead. I should say that his brother heard him breaking hard and called Dr. Oberholzer. Dr. Oberholzer found his mother there yesterday that he had been to the sand bank to see a young man whom he wanted to talk to. He had a good deal of talk about going west. I am now of the opinion that he had had it in his mind for some time. He would sometimes spend the whole evening hanging over the alley gate and screaming to be let in. His mother found him dead at 10 o'clock last night. She found a button which contained his name under his bed after his death. It was an ounce weight, bearing the label of Dr. Storer, druggist.

THE VERDICT.

Overseer Newell says he has two homeless babies that want homes. They are each about four months old, and one is a boy, the other a girl. Both are healthy and "pretty as picture," says the overseer. Who wants them?

Accident at the Shaft.

This forenoon while at work in the Decatur coal mines, John Champion, one of the diggers for black diamonds, met with a painful accident which has rendered him unfit for work for some days. A heavy chunk of coal fell from above his head against his leg and ankle, bruising the members severely and crippling him temporarily. He sustained no fractures. Dr. Oberholzer attended Mr. Champion at once and he is now at his home resting comfortably.

HEAD FOR TRIAL.

The alleged confidence chaps, who give their names as Ed. Rogier and D. S. Sprague, were taken before McGorray last evening, when their examination was fixed for Thursday next. In default of $200 bail each, both were committed to the tender care of Sheriff Foster. Detective Imboden and Officer Welty, who arrested the parties, say there is a plain case against them. They are accused of trying to work the check game on a green.

THE COLORED VOTERS.

Members of Blaine and Logan Club No. 2 Meet at Headquarters.

A HOUSING MEETING.

The members of Blaine and Logan Club No. 2, numbering nearly 90, met at Republican Headquarters last night. The large room was well filled, about a dozen white voters being present to witness the proceedings. In the absence of President Singleton, James Hollinger was elected temporary chairman. Secretary Robert Rogan and the other officers were in attendance.

A MARCHING CLUB.

After some discussion it was decided to form a marching club, all the members agreeing to turn out. The following officers were elected:

Captain—Hardy Scott.
First Lieutenant—Sims Dry.
Second Lieutenant—David Fields.
Orderly Sergeant—Richard R. Stewart.

MARTIAL BAND.

The following are members of the club's martial band: Robert Stewart, Tom Moore, Lewis Steward and others.

GOLF CLUB.

The members of the Glee Club are Charles Staines, Sol Ohaver, Tom Moore, Robert Steward and others.

The executive committee were instructed to confer with dealers and learn prices for marching suits, the figures to be reported at the next regular meeting, Monday night.

SPEECHES.

The routine business having been disposed of speeches were in order, and nearly every one in the hall had something to say in the way of commanding the Republican nominee. Speeches were made by Rev. H. Simon, George Winston, "Doo" Stewart, Mr. Hagerman, Hardy Scott and many others. All gave the democrats a scolding and awakened the liveliest enthusiasm imaginable by their pointed remarks. Rousing cheers encouraged the speakers and gave notice to the people on the squares two and three blocks distant that the colored voters had fallen into line for Blaine and Logan. James Freeman gave the club a brief address on the political situation. It was received with rounds of applause.

The members of the club are now in fighting shape and are prepared to do good voters ready for the winning ticket during the campaign.
